Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "boozes," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

THE TIBETAN POPE.

The Dalai Lama, the religious head of the Buddhists, who fled from Lhasa two weeks ago and more recently was deposed as head of the Tibetan government, arrived at Darjiling, British India, yesterday afternoon. He was the object of a great display of religious fervor on the part of the Buddhists.

A big procession of the faithful met the Tibetan pope some distance from the city and escorted him with grand ceremony. They carried banners, incense burners and multi-colored flags. The roadside was decorated with lucky symbols, behind which dense crowds of natives prostrated themselves as the high priest of Buddha passed.

The Dalai Lama rode in a magnificent yellow sedan chair borne by richly capar-nisoned coolies. His progress was frequently halted by hysterical women craving permission to touch the high priest's garments or thrusting up babies to be blessed. Groups of American, German and French tourists, who went there from Calcutta to see the Dalai Lama, together with the European residents, witnessed the strange and picture-scene from points of vantage.

The Dalai Lama and his suite were installed in the Druid Hotel, the Lama himself occupying the top floor, as no one is permitted to sleep on a higher level than he. His bedchamber is draped throughout with yellow silk. There is an altar in the corner of the room and incense lamps burn incessantly before images of Buddha which were especially brought there from Gartok by the Maharajah of Sikkim.

Fifty years' experience of an Old Nurse Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for fifty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. It relieves the child from pain, cures diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and rests the mother. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

ATTACKS MOVING PICTURES

That moving picture theatres are "dens of iniquity" and infested by "human dogs and scoundrels," dangerous to young girls especially, was asserted by Judge O'Sullivan, who recently charged the grand jury to investigate the white-slave traffic in General Sessions in New York, Monday. He warned all paren's not to let their children attend such shows unaccompanied.

Judge O'Sullivan gave this opinion in sentencing Charles Mohl, 21 years old, to state prison for not less than five years and not more than nine years and six months. Mohl was convicted on Friday on charge of kidnapping Nellie O'Leary, 15 years old, after the girl had attended a moving-picture performance. In sentencing Mohl Judge O'Sullivan said:

"There are no anars for the catching and bringing of young girls down to the level of infamy and shame like the moving-picture show. It is time that the mothers and fathers in New York learned that those shows are dens of iniquity where their children may be ruined.
Unfortunately, the law cannot take the place of parents. At present no child under the age of 16 can enter one of these places unless accompanied by a parent or guardian. The law fixes the age of consent at 18, and to that extent protects young girls, but it cannot protect them from the human dogs and scoundrels who infest these moving-picture shows."

paroled in the custody of the coroner yesterday for further examination today after he had appeared in court on a technical charge of homicide.

Mrs. Maria Mata Lyndes, a young Italian woman, died on February 24, and Father Montverri admitted to the coroner that he had applied a heated aluminum button to her body when he was called upon to render spiritual comfort. He burned her body, he said, to relieve pain of which the woman complained, having been convinced of the efficacy of such treatment by trying it on himself.

A physician who examined the body wrote to the authorities that there were terrible wounds, produced by burns with an iron; which were the collateral cause of death.

Nasal Catarrh, an inflammation of the delicate membrane lining the air-passages, is not cured by any mixture taken into the stomach. Don't waste time on them. Take Ely's Cream Balm through the nostrils, so that the fevered, swollen tissues are resolved at once. Never mind how long you suffered nor how often you have been disappointed, we know Ely's Cream Balm is the remedy you should use. All druggists, 50c.

DAMAGED BY FLOODS.

Fully 2,000 persons were homeless last night in Ohio as a result of the flood which is still sweeping over the state. At Zanesville alone 1,000 persons were reported as having been driven from their homes. The public buildings are crowded with refugees who are being fed by the city authorities.

All business and traffic has ceased at Warren, and yesterday 300 people were rescued from their homes in boats, several falling houses giving a new horror to the situation.

While the Licking river at Zanesville has commenced to recede, the Muskingum, which is much the larger stream, is still rising, and the crest of the flood there will not be reached until today.

An immense gorge has formed in the river at Leavittsburg, and it is feared that if it breaks it will rush down upon Warren.

Along the whole valley of the Great Miami river farm lands are inundated.
Overwhelmed by the worst flood in the history of the Mohawk valley, the village of Herkimer N. Y., was last night without electric lights, the gas is shut off at the main, no water supply is available for domestic purposes and food is at a premium.

Six or eight immense ice gorges at different points along the Susquehanna and Chenango rivers above Binghamton, N. Y., have caused much apprehension and some danger. The rivers are still rising and last night many families were driven from their homes in one section of the city.

For the second time this winter Port Deposit, Md., near the mouth of the Susquehanna is flooded. The ice above McCall's ferry broke early yesterday, came rushing down the river, crashing against the piers of the new Baltimore and Ohio Railroad bridge and piling up in immense hummocks.

H. C. STUART NOMINATED.

On a platform condemning the Taft administration, the democrats met in Bristol and nominated Henry Carter Stuart, of Russell county, former corporation commissioner, for Congress in the sixth district, to oppose Representative Bascom Sloop. The meeting was a large and representative one, and though he came to Bristol firmly resolved not to make the race, Mr. Stuart was compelled to yield to the pressure.

The house almost went wild when he was nominated and accepted. Pious for the contest was laid out and a campaign committee called. The convention was the largest and most enthusiastic that has been held in the sixth district in 10 years, and the democrats reem-d. tirmed to redeem the district from the republicans and enable Virginia to send a solid democratic delegation to Congress.

for the season of 1910. Only by putting in an order for your car now and specifying the date of delivery will we be able to take care of your order promptly. The short-natural congestion of the automobile business in the spring all work together to pre-
